

craft—his father, William Calhoun; his grandfather, Boone Calhoun; and his great-grandfather, Joe Calhoun.

Calhoun estimates in his time he's built thousands of the shallow-draft boats a writer once dubbed the African Queen of Reelfoot Lake.

"Standard length is 15½ feet. Made of cypress, covered with fiberglass, powered by anywhere from a 3- to an 8-horsepower motor and a set of oars," he said.

"It's called a stump-jumper because it'll run in about 12 inches of water. As long as it can float, it will go. You take care of it. It'll last a long time. There's some around here that's 50 and 60 years old."

Price of one of his boats ranges from $1,500 to $2,500.

Calhoun has displayed his boats and demonstrated his craftsmanship at the World's Fair at Knoxville in 1982, the Tennessee Aquarium at Chattanooga, and at the Smithsonian Institute at Washington.

At the boat-building demonstrations, a curious public stops and watches, he said. Invariably, wherever he's set up shop, a curious public always asks the same three questions.

"Those questions are, 'What kind of wood do you use?', 'How many do you make in a year?', and 'How long does it take you to make one?'" he said.

"I don't know how many I make in a year. It takes me about 10 days to make one, but I take my time, and the phone rings, and ain't nobody here but me. Besides, I'm supposed to be retired. So who knows? I still have orders to fill. I just put their names down and get to 'em when I can."

A Reelfoot Lake boat is one permanent display at Obion County museum, Dixie Gun Works, the Tennessee State Museum at Nashville, and the Fish and Wildlife Museum at Atlanta, GA.

Calhoun's customers are nationwide.

"I keep a boat on hand for a man in California. He might call today and say, 'Send it to me.' He's the largest wholesale grocer in California, and he gives Reelfoot Lake boats to his customers," Calhoun said.

"He says they can't get one like it anywhere else, so it's something unique for them."

A TRIBUTE TO FRED GOSLEY

HON. ROBERT A. BRADY

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 13, 1998

Mr. BRADY of Pennsylvania. Mr. Speaker, I rise to honor a great Philadelphian, Fred Gosley. Fred is a father and grandfather. He is an honored veteran, who continues to give back to his fellow vets through his work in the VFW. He is a community activist, who is well known for his efforts in the 13th Ward. But, more than anything else, Fred is a man of God.

Fred Gosley made a lifelong commitment to his church. And Fred always keeps his commitments. His Pastor, Rev. Barry Williams, told me that Fred is one of the most active members of New Inspirational. He is an example to old and young of the benefits of hard work and living according to the scriptures.

Mr. Speaker, Fred Gosley will be honored by his church for his service to the community and to New Inspirational. I join them in paying homage to a man who has few peers, Fred Gosley.

IN HONOR OF THELMA GAMMELL ON HER 103RD BIRTHDAY

HON. LORETTA SANCHEZ

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 13, 1998

Ms. SANCHEZ. Mr. Speaker, today I rise to honor Thelma Gammell on her 103rd birthday.

Thelma is a resident of Santa Ana, California. She was born in South Dakota and grew up on the South Dakotan prairie. Her family worked hard. A closely knit family, they enjoyed life in an old-fashioned way. Thelma and her sister played with their dolls and "kitten playmates." And when it snowed, the whole prairie became their playground.

Thelma is a joy to know. Witty, humorous, full of the spirit of life. Her life has been one of many wonderful adventures. She met her husband, John Gammell in 1912, and the two of them lived in several states—North Dakota, South Dakota, Montana, Wyoming and Nebraska—before moving to Laguna Beach, California. Their son and daughter were born in Wyoming.

In Laguna Beach, John worked as a carpenter and Thelma worked as a pottery designer. After retirement, they traveled, visiting their friends in the Midwest. In 1967 her husband passed away. Thelma became an active volunteer for the Santa Ana Senior Center and has continued to volunteer for the past 13 years.

Everyone who knows Thelma is captivated by her charm and her outgoing personality. She has truly graced our world by her life.

Please join me today in wishing this most remarkable woman a very happy birthday.

IN HONOR OF THE 1998 ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD RECIPIENTS OF THE PUERTO RICAN ASSOCIATION FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

HON. ROBERT MENENDEZ

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 13, 1998

Mr. MENENDEZ. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay special tribute to the 1998 Roberto Clemente Award Recipients of the Puerto Rican Association for Human Development (PRAHD) for their innumerable contributions to Hispanic communities throughout New Jersey. For years, this agency has been committed to improving the standard of living of Hispanic families through the administration of programs and services which address the social, economic, health, and educational status of these communities. On October 4, 1998, PRAHD is sponsoring the Annual Roberto Clemente Award, honoring five individuals for their outstanding public service and community involvement.

The award recipients honored this year by PRAHD are: Outstanding Professional, Eralides Cabrera; Outstanding Community Service, Melvin Ramos; Outstanding Educator, Senovia Robles-Cruz; Outstanding Academic Student, Jose Garcia; Outstanding Corporation, Goya Foods and Special Roberto Clemente Award, Minister Robert McCoy.

Founded in 1974 as a charitable organization by the Hispanic leadership of the Perth

Amboy area, the Puerto Rican Association for Human Development operates a number of service programs, such as day care services, educational tutoring, emergency legal, housing, and medical assistance, drug prevention, youth and family counseling, and various senior services which serve more than 12,000 people annually. The agency is governed by an eleven-member board of directors selected from the community and administered by Executive Director Lydia Trinidad, who is also PRAHD's Chief Executive Officer. PRAHD also relies on the support and effort of community volunteers who work in all areas of agency operations.

I ask that my colleagues join me in recognizing the outstanding work of these honored individuals and the Puerto Rican Association for Human Development. I further commend their accomplishments and encourage them to continue to serve their communities for many more years to come.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. CAROLYN C. KILPATRICK

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 13, 1998

Ms. KILPATRICK. Mr. Speaker, due to a death in my family, I was unable to record my vote on several measures. Had I been present, I would have voted "aye" on rollcall No. 521; "nay" on rollcall No. 522; and "nay" on rollcall No. 523.

HEROIN CRISIS STARTS IN COLOMBIA

HON. BENJAMIN A. GILMAN

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 13, 1998

Mr. GILMAN. Mr. Speaker, while the Administration has fought the Congress tooth and nail over the last few years to prevent the provision we wanted of high performance (greater lift and range capacity) and crash survivable as well as ballistically hardened helicopters to the Colombian National Police (CNP) excellent DANTI anti-narcotics unit in a real shooting war on drugs, something dramatically has happened on the heroin front here at home.

In the last five years, first time teen (12-17) heroin use has risen a mind boggling 875%, and according to latest DEA seizure and street buy data, 75% of that heroin now comes from Colombia. So while the Administration slept, the Colombian narco-traffickers shifted gears and took over the former Asian dominated U.S. heroin market with cheaper, purer and more deadly South American heroin.

The Washington Times outlined the recent U.S. move towards South American heroin in its edition yesterday in a extensive and comprehensive piece called "Cocaine Cartels Take on New Product-Heroin". The article notes this Colombian heroin on the streets of the U.S. approaches (according to DEA) 70% to 80% purity, while the average of other heroin is only 39% purity. Our DEA, FBI and Customs Service agree that the best place to fight drugs is at the source, and in this case, it's the high Colombian Andes fields of opium
